Title: Leadership and Managing Change

Many law firm leaders have risen to the top in their firms because of their technical legal ability. In today's volatile, uncertain, complex & ambiguous (VUCA) world, being a great lawyer is not enough. In this session we will explore:

- Leadership or Management – What are the differences?
- Leadership styles – What kind of leader are you?
- Models for successful change management
- Building a high performance change team, and tools for getting your people involved and engaged with the change
